Voluntary Student Activities Free of Religious, Spiritual and/or Ethical Content

- Organized lunch time sport activities which may include - handball, touch football, cricket etc.
- Additional support to students in learning programs (in conjunction with the relevant classroom teacher)
- Assisting classroom teachers when asked to do so by them
- One-on-one care for students wishing to discuss social and emotional needs

These activities are available to all students who may voluntarily participate unless a parent or guardian requests in writing that this is not to occur for their child/ren.

Voluntary Student Activities with Religious, Spiritual and/or Ethical Content

- One-to-one regular meetings with chaplain for religious and spiritual support (students may wish to discuss issues varying from “why were we created?” to “is there a God and is he relevant?”)
- Groups Visiting School for Performances e.g. Bands and motivational speakers

My child/ren as listed above has/have my consent to participate on a voluntary basis in activities within the program of chaplaincy services which have religious, spiritual and ethical content. I understand that this consent is inclusive of all such activities and remains operational unless I advise the school otherwise in writing.
